

Senior Journal

Conradian

www.conradhighschool.com

Conradian

VOLUME 10

NUMBER 2

JUNE 1946

Theme Journalism

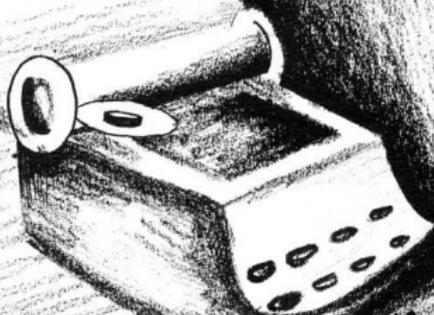

Published by the

Conradian Press Club

HENRY C. CONRAD HIGH SCHOOL

Woodcrest

Wilmington, Delaware

www.conradhighschool.com

MARY ARRANTS

A student of the general course, Mary wants to become a nurse and plans to go into training soon after graduation. She likes stamp-collecting and her favorite pastime is bicycling. She has been an active member of the Girl Reserves.

GEORGE BENDLER

"G.I." came to us in his sophomore year from Delaware City, where he was a member of the Athletic Club and vice-president of his freshman class. Here at Conrad he was on the football squad in his senior year. Whenever there is any "mischievous deviltry" going on, George and his pal Sam are more than likely involved.

DOROTHY BETTS

Dot, who came to us from Marshallton, likes bowling, dancing, and submarine sandwiches, while her chief dislike is "boys in plaid pants." A student of the general course, her ambition is to graduate from high school.

NAOMI BETTS

Since Naomi is one of the two red-headed girls in the Senior class, she can readily be seen in a crowd. Her pastimes are going to the movies, bowling, and eating submarines. After securing that coveted "sheepskin," Naomi wants to become an interior decorator.

NANCY BRITTINGHAM

A state 4-H winner in "Clothing Achievement," "Brit" plans to attend college to continue her home economics course. Dancing, sewing, and ice-skating rank high in her list of pleasures. "Brit," who sang with Glee Club (2,3), will receive a scientific diploma.

MARY CALVARESE

Here is a girl who wants to be a gym teacher. A lover of all sports, Mary has been a member of the hockey team (2-4), and of the basketball team (4). Her other activities include Twirling Corps (4), Leaders Corps (2), and Glee Club (2-4). Mary's chief recreation is dancing.

DOLORES CAMPBELL

When "Dolly's" academic studies and extra-curricular activities don't occupy all her time, she is busy sending morale-building letters off to Dickinson College. However, she does have other fields of interest; she enjoys playing the piano and buying new clothes. At Conrad she has been active in Oreads (3,4), "Conradian" Press Club, Senior Reception, and Spanish Club.

DORIS CARTER

"Doc's" hobby is collecting souvenirs, and her main dislike is "know-it-all" people. After that sheepskin is in her hand, she wants to learn how to become a good office worker. Roller-skating, dancing, and drinking cokes are her favorite pastimes. She was in the Girl Reserves (1,2).

PAUL CHILDRESS

A commercial student, Paul hopes that he might graduate and become a signalman in the Merchant Marine. He likes to dance, and his favorite sports are tennis and horseback riding. Paul has been a member of the Conrad Band since he was a sophomore.

SAMUEL CIROALO

Sam, who came to Conrad in his junior year from Wilmington High, has been an ardent participant in football, basketball, and baseball. Sam, who has followed the scientific course, intends to become a mechanic. One of his chief pastimes is "heckling" G. I. Bendler and Ken Wood.

MARY VIRGINIA CLARK

Some day "Ditty" hopes to make her all engrossing hobby of roller-skating a career—unless "the Navy" steps in. To be on the safe side, however, she is taking a commercial course.

MYLENE CLARK

"Clarkie," who is taking the academic course, hopes to attend college and major in Home Economics. Her activities at Conrad include hockey (2-4), basketball (2-4), Science Club (3-4), and Spanish Club (Secretary 4). "Clarkie" likes sewing, swimming, and all sports, while her dislike is—you've guessed it!—homework.

LOUISE COLLIER

Attractive Louise comes to us from Georgia. She loves to listen to all kinds of music, and her favorite pastimes are painting with oils and swimming. Louise is a member of the Oreads and a commercial student. Her ambition is to return to Georgia and become a legal stenographer.

CHARLOTTE COX

A cheerful supplement to the Library Squad for two years, "Sissy" has busily tackled her school activities and commercial studies. She would like to become an efficient secretary, but there is every indication that such is not to be when a certain soldier from North Carolina comes home.

MARGARET CREEDON

Margaret, a student of the general course, hopes to become either a typist or a traveler after her graduation. She likes to play baseball and basketball. She also enjoys listening to the radio, attending the movies, and "taking life easy." Her main dislike is homework.

BURRELL CROMPTON, JR.

Burrell, who came to us from Delaware City as a freshman, hopes some day to become a lawyer. Swimming and playing the trumpet are his hobbies. He also likes good jazz, girls, and he's exceptionally fond of milk shakes. Burrell played in the Band (1-4) and was on the baseball team (3,4).

JEANNINE CROSBY

Vivacious Jeannine, a student of the general course, is known to everyone for "her class room singing." Her activities include Glee Club (2-4) and Student Council (4). She is fond of all kinds of sports, but greatly dislikes homework and dental appointments. Jeannine plans to become a nurse after attending college.

MARY JANE DAY

This pleasant and even-tempered student of the academic course dislikes hurrying. Her activities include Freshman Chorus (1), Conradian Business Staff (4), and Dramatics (3,4). Her ambition is to be a success at "goodness knows what," but she'll make it. She like swimming, good books, and submarine sandwiches.

PAT DeBODA

This fellow, who has a great liking for the sea, hopes some day to become a naval officer. Pat played end on the football team for two years. He also likes to play basketball.

LOUISE Di IORIO

"Shorty," as we know her, has a great desire to be a hairdresser. At Conrad she has been an active member of the Girl Reserves for two years. She enjoys ice-skating, dancing, and going to the movies.

LOUISE Di MAIO

"Louie" or "Camel," a stalwart left halfback on the football team during the past two years, is a member of the Senior Executive Committee and is the student manager of the basketball team. He likes sports, dances, and parties. "Louie" hopes to attend the University of Delaware after receiving his scientific diploma.

ROBERT DOHERTY

"Bob" came to Conrad in his sophomore year from Wilmington High School. He is very fond of all sports, dancing, moving pictures, and—of Conrad. His ambition is to become an ace sports reporter in a city newspaper. Here's wishing you luck, Bob!

STIRLING DuBELL

Ambitious and fun-loving Stirling, an academic student, wants to go West. At Conrad his various activities have included roles in the Senior Play (3), the Christmas pageant (3), and the Senior Reception Program (4). He is also president of the Science Club, a Student Councilor, and Conradian's Editor-in-Chief. His hobbies are swimming, basketball (J.V.-3) and ornithology.

RAYMOND DUCK

Popular, good-natured "Baldy" is taking the general course. He's very fond of sports, his favorite being ice-skating, boxing, and swimming. His ambition is to be a civil engineer, and if determination and personality mean anything, we think Ray will make the grade.

JACOB DUDKEWITZ

"Jake," one of our best liked vocational "Ag" students, wishes only to become a successful farmer. An active F. F. A. member for four years, he has been vice-president of this organization during the past two years. Aside from agricultural interests, Jake is also fond of all sports.

ROGER ELDERKIN, JR.

"Lochinvar," distinguished for his "corn," is taking the academic course. Following graduation he hopes to enter college to become an architectural engineer. He likes everything but changing tires on his green Chevy after midnight. Roger's hobby is collecting dogs; and his activities include football (3,4) and Latin Club (4).

JOSEPH P. ELLIOTT, JR.

Joe's droll sense of humor makes him an interesting asset to any class. An academic student, his extra-curricular activities have centered around the Science Club (3,4), Senior Reception (4), and "Conradian" (3,4). His hobbies are microphotography and camping; and his ambition is to become a medical doctor.

JAMES ELLIS

Because of his "crew" hair-cut, Jim is sometimes called "Curly." During his years at Conrad his activities have included Science Club (3,4), Band (1,2), Biology Club (2), Christmas Pageant (1-3), and the Senior Reception (4). Jim is taking the scientific course, and his ambition is to get a college diploma. Number one on his hobby list is hunting.

DORIS EVANS

In spite of her "love for a good time" Doris has found opportunity to engage in many extra-curricular activities—Oreads (3,4), Glee Club (2,3,4), Spanish Club (4), Senior Executive Committee (4), and the Conradian Staff (2,3,4). An academic student, she plans to attend college in the fall.

MARIE EWING

Although this lassie's name is Marie Theresa Ewing, her class mates call her "Re." After graduation she expects to take an administrative course at Beacons. "Re" isn't particularly crazy about homework, but she enjoys horseback riding, swimming, roller-skating, and reading. Her activities include Girl Reserves and Candlelight Service.

FLORENCE FAUERBACH

"Flossie," a student of the academic course, plans to attend Immaculata College, where she will major in business economics. She has been active in the Oreads, and in basketball, hockey, and softball. She has also been on the cheering squad for two years. Aside from sports, Floss likes the movies, Friday night dances, and parties.

NOBLE FENIMORE

Noble, a quiet, well-liked senior, plans to go to college. His chief hobbies are riding a motorcycle, roller skating, attending school, and ice-skating. He dislikes girls, so he says, but "seeing is believing!" His ambition is to become a good engineer.

WILFORD FLETCHER

"Fletch," who is Conradian's Art Editor this year, has one ambition—to become an artist. In addition to being a member of the Art Staff for four years and working on the sets for the Christmas Pageant, he also played football (2,3). Wilford likes classical music, and his chief hobby is collecting records.

BETTY FRAZER

Dreaming of the green convertible she wants to buy, Betty goes about with her head in the clouds, and her marks almost as high. An outstanding academic student, Betty is well-liked for her willingness to help and her good nature. Her activities include Biology Club (2); Student Council (2); Class Treasurer (3); Oreads (3,4); Science Club (3,4).

DOROTHY FREDERICK

"Cassie," a student of the general course plans to be a telephone operator after graduation. In the ninth grade she was a member of the Freshman Chorus and of the Twirling Corps. Cassie's favorites are bowling and listening to good music. Although she claims her main dislike is men, that is not what rumor reveals!

GLEASON FRYE

Fond of "making with the vocals," Gleason hopes some day to make harmony with a male quartet. He is taking the academic course, and of all hours in the day he enjoys his study periods most. Gleason played on the football team (3,4) and was a member of the band (1-3).

LEONARD GIBNEY

"Len," a very likeable and mischievous senior, and a student of the general course, expects and hopes that his future will be controlled by Uncle Sam. He enjoys movies, loafing, and the company of the fairer sex. He finds homework most unpleasant.

WARREN GLANDÉN

President of the Marshallton Boys' Club, Warren relates that his one ambition is to graduate. Better known as "Bussie," he specializes in collecting miniatures of horses. Baseball, swimming, ice-skating, and reading constitute his chief interests.

WILLIAM GLASS

A member of the Band (2-4), "Glassy" hobbies are playing the trumpet, listening to "hot" records, and working cross-word puzzles. Though he neither likes to write themes or to read biographies, he does like "A's" on his report card. His main ambition is to enlist in the army before the draft board gets him.

GEORGE GLYNN

Our vice-president George, who is an academic student, wants to become a history professor. Here at Conrad he has worked hard on the cheering squad for the past three years. He is also president of the Spanish Club (4) and a member of the Science Club (3,4). George's favorite hobby is rollerskating.

FRANCES GOODLEY

"Franny," who has attended both Middletown and Newark High Schools, was very active at each. While at Middletown she was a member of the Honor Roll Society and Class Treasurer. At Newark she was a traffic officer of the Student Council. Here at Conrad "Franny," good-natured and cooperative, has made a name for herself on the Conradian Press Club.

FRANKLIN GREEN

An academic student, "Greenie" wants to become a good mechanic after he has graduated. He is a lover of sports, dancing, and motorcycling. Talented in acrobatics, he has often been in school programs and has participated in the Senior Reception and "Redskin Rambles."

ANNA GRIEG

Pretty and popular, Ann came from Claymont High to attend Conrad in her senior year. A commercial student, she hopes to attend Beacom College and then obtain a good position. Dancing is Ann's chief pastime.

ALICE GUEST

Good-natured "Foozy," as her many friends call her, has one ambition: to be the secretary her boss "just can't do without." "Fozy," who takes the commercial course, participated in the Christmas pageant in her Junior year. Her only hobby, she states, "is having a good time."

CATHERINE HAGEMAN

"Punkie's" favorite pastimes are listening to the "950 Club" and playing the piano. During her four years at Conrad, "Punk" has been a member of the Freshman Chorus, Glee Club, (2-4), Color Guard (2-4), and Leader Corps (1). After graduation she hopes to work in a business office.

CHARLES HARBIDGE

A vocational student, "Mort," who came to us as a Junior from Suddersville, is Conrad's good-natured handyman. His ambitions are to graduate and to join the army, and his hobby is collecting pennies. Popular with everyone, his activities include management of football (3,4) and of basketball (3).

EDWARD HASTINGS

A student of the vocational course, Ed's wishes are confined, he tells us, to graduating and buying a car. His activities include football (3,4) and F. F. A. (2-4). He is fond of all sports and enjoys also hillbilly music and good movies.

RUTH HAYDEN

A commercial student and a member of the Senior Reception Committee, Ruth hopes to study psychology in the future. Quiet and friendly, Ruth likes to travel and hopes to take a trip around the world some day. Her hobbies are toe dancing, ice skating, and attending the theatre.

JACQUELINE HENZE

To become either a stenographer or an airline hostess is "Jackie's" ambition. A commercial student and a member of the library squad (1-4), she likes to dance, swim, and roller skate for relaxation. Her hobby is corresponding with people all over the country.

ANNE HORNER

High scoring center on the hockey team, Anne is famous for her sunny disposition, her keen eye, and her number nines. Among her many activities are: Oreads (3,4), Senior Executive Committee, Color Guard (1-4), Conradian Business Staff (2-4), Hockey (3,4), Basketball (3,4), Baseball (3,4)—and, last but not least, writing to a West Pointer, an alumnus of Conrad.

VIRGINIA HOWELL

"Ginny," as we all know her, is a student of the academic course. Her activities include Spanish Club, Conradian Press Club, Oreads, and Latin Club. "Ginny" loves music and folk dancing, and her ambition is to study law at the University of Alabama.

VERNON HUBER

"Randy," well-known for his last minute dashes to school, has several ambitions: to graduate, to become a C. P. A., and a professional roller skater. While at Conrad he has taken part in Candlelight services and cheer leading. Randy likes pretty girls, "four good tires," roller-skating, and swimming. His chief aversions are homework and the Army.

WILLIAM HUGG

"Happy birthday dear Huggy," so sing his pals and friends in the cafeteria lunch hour. Yes, it's Huggy, the boy with the innumerable birthdays. Besides these celebrations, Bill immensely enjoys hunting, fishing, and trapping; his hobby is collecting and selling muskrat furs.

MARGARET HUMPHREYS

"Marg," an academic student and a pal to everyone, came to Conrad as a sophomore from Greenwood High School. She is especially fond of horses. Marg's ambition is to become a journalist. Her activities at Conrad included: Literary Editor of "Conradian," Oreads (3,4), Consul of Latin Club (4), and President of the Girl Reserves (4).

ALEXANDER JARRELL

During his high school career "Alex," one of our "farmers," has been an active member of the F. F. A. (2-4) and was treasurer of that group in his senior year. He is particularly fond of all sports, and says his hobby is collecting girls' pictures.

BETTY JANE JOHNSON

"B. J.," as she is known to her friends, is a student of the commercial course. Dancing and "having fun" are her chief pleasures. Betty's activities at Conrad have included the Twirling Corps (1) and the Senior Reception. She hopes to attend college and become a C. P. A.

EDITH JOHNSON

Known to most of her friends as "Gizzy," Edith, who has been active in candlelight services and Girl Reserves, likes to travel, to dance, and to date a certain "Bill." She has a strong dislike for school. Through following her hobby of collecting souvenirs, she has accumulated a number of toy donkeys.

EMMA JONES

"Emmy Mabel," a transfer last year from Gratz High School in Philadelphia, brought to Conrad one of the finest singing voices that this school has been able to boast of in some years. Aside from singing with Conrad's Glee Club, she has also been a member of the Conradian staff, the Senior Executive Committee, and the Hockey Squad.

ROBERT JONES

Bob is taking the scientific course as a step in realizing his ambition to become an electrical engineer. At Conrad he was a member of the football team for two years. In addition to this sport, he also likes roller skating, ice skating, baseball and hockey. His chief dislike is conceited girls.

MARY ELLEN JONES

We wish Mary Ellen luck in realizing her ambition to become a missionary to China. At Conrad she has been active in the Girl Reserves and has sung with the Glee Club (2-4). She likes music, but, incredibly enough, she dislikes Frank Sinatra.

LESLIE JUSTISON

Leslie's greatest dislike is school. A student of the general course, he prefers gym period to all other classes of the day. He also likes movies, skating, and hamburgers in spite of the fact that he is a confirmed vegetarian.

AUDREY KAUFFMAN

After graduation, "Reds," a student of the general course, wants to become a dressmaker. She enjoys very active hobbies, such as swimming, dancing, and skating. She also likes sailors. Audrey has been a Girl Reserve since she was a sophomore.

MARY LOU KELLY

An attractive blond, Mary Lou will graduate with an academic diploma. Swimming is her hobby, but buying clothes is her favorite pastime. That certain man is her "ray" of sunshine. Her activities have included Christmas pageants, Science Club (3,4), and Bi-Si Club (2).

CHARLOTTE KERSTETTER

"Char's" ambition is to fly, but she is also very much interested in horses and music. Her athletic and scholastic activities include Student Council (2), Press Club (3,4), Hockey (1-4), Freshman Chorus, Glee Club (2), Oreads (3,4), and Science Club (2-4). She is also president of the Latin Club and secretary of the French Club.

EDNA MAY KIPE

"Eddie" is a peppy student of the scientific course. Illustrating her vim and vigor is her participation in Freshman Chorus, Glee Club (2), Student Council (4), Spanish Club (4). Her ambition, after completing school, is to become an "Old Maid" teacher. This we doubt, however, considering how much she enjoys writing letters to a "certain sailor." Her hobbies are dancing and collecting dolls.

PAULINE KREER

Pauline, quiet, likeable, and the possessor of a "sweet tooth," joined us as a sophomore from Marshallton, and in that year she was a member of our school band. Her main ambition is to obtain a well-paying position with a reliable firm.

ANN LATTOMUS

Nicknamed "Slim" by her friends this tall senior is interested in sports, and was on the girls' basketball team in her tenth year. She takes the general course and lists her favorite pastimes as bowling and swimming. Her ambition is to travel in Europe, now that the war is over.

RUTH ELLEN LAVIS

"To become famous in a heretofore unknown field" is Ruth Ellen's most unusual ambition. A student of the general course and also an active member of the Girl Reserves, happy-go-lucky Ruth tells us that she is especially fond of hot fudge sundaes, dark-wavy hair, dancing, and roller skating.

BARBARA LIND

"Babs" loves dancing and the movies, and her favorite song is "I Can't Begin to Tell You." Her ambition is to become a telephone operator; however, she is also very much interested in a certain Navy man and rather likes the idea of a matrimonial career.

JUNE LLOYD

Sailing, swimming, and reading are June's main interests in life, while roller skating is her chief dislike. June has participated in French Club (4), Glee Club (2-4), and "Redskin Rambles." Her "ambition," as she flatly puts it, is a question mark.

DONALD LYNAM

Don, better known as "General," is pursuing the academic course. He has been active in the Biology Club (2), Science Club (3,4), Conradian Press Club (4), Senior Play (3), Student Council (4), Senior Executive Committee, Football squad (4), and is now Vice-President of the French Club. Don likes to eat, sleep, and dance, and his ambition is to enter West Point.

DAVID MacFADDEN

This jovial senior has two worthy ambitions—to join the Marine Corps and to become a careful driver. Dave likes guns, automobiles, and airplanes, but we're sure that he is kidding when he tells us that he dislikes sailors and girls.

BEATRICE MATTHEWS

"Bea," an easy-going academic student, loves music and sports. Her ambition is to become a mathematics teacher, and her sunny disposition should help to make her a successful one. Engaging in a number of extra-curricular activities, "Bea" has been a member of the Oreads (3,4), Glee Club (2-4), Girl Reserves (3-4), Spanish Club (4), and Conradian Press Club (4).

DONALD MCDANIELS

"Too Long" (Don) came to Conrad last year from Elkton High, where he was secretary of his class. He hopes to make a career of the Army or Navy, where his past training in the C. A. P. should help him considerably. Don likes all sports, model building, and collecting service shoulder insignia; his pet "gripe" is English grammar.

CLAIRE MCKENDRICK

A member of the general course, "Peachie's" main ambition is to graduate. She has been an active member of the Girl Reserves (2-4); and her hobbies are swimming, dancing, and having a good time.

LAMONT METTLER

Lamont, a likeable fellow from Richardson Park, will graduate with a general diploma. He was a member of the Lighting Committee during his first three years at Conrad. Lamont's hobbies are automobiles, boats, and stamp-collecting. He hopes to become a good airplane sheetmetal worker and the owner of a yacht.

ELIZABETH MILLER

Betty, hoping to become an efficient secretary, has industriously tackled her commercial studies. Her hobby is collecting pictures; and, as pastimes, she enjoys swimming and dancing.

VIRGINIA MILLER

Dark-haired "Ginny," as she is known to her classmates, comes to Conrad from Delaware City. She is taking the general course, and her one ambition is to be graduated and to secure a good job. Her hobbies are listening to good music and going to the movies.

WILLIAM MILLER

Bill, a transfer from Newark High and an academic student, lists physics as his favorite subject. As his physique suggests, Bill occupies much of his spare time by eating. Some day he hopes to own a farm.

ERICA MOOTZ

Erica, known to her friends as "Rookie," is a commercial student. Her hobbies include bowling and listening to good music. After graduation, Erica hopes to become an efficient secretary.

ROBERT MORRISON

Happy-go-lucky Bob, a member of the Spanish Club, is working for a scientific diploma. His one ambition is to become a good engineer. Music, good food, and the country are his favorites; he finds buses, and school work "gruesome." Bob's favorite pastime is raising chickens.

ROBERT MORROW

Strong-armed center-fielder of our baseball team (3,4), Bob hopes to some day don a uniform of the Big League, and, if our opinion counts, he'll make it. His current ambition, however, is to graduate from Conrad with a commercial diploma.

BARBARA NICHOLS

Better known as "Bobbie," this quiet, likeable senior, hopes some day to become an air hostess. In addition to being an ardent basketball fan, she also enjoys dancing. During the past year Bobbie, who will graduate with a general diploma, has been one of our most reliable workers on the Conradian Art Staff.

RAYMOND NORRIS

"Cats," our speedy quarterback of the '45 season, played—in addition to football (3,4)—baseball (3,4), J.V. basketball (2,3), and varsity basketball (4). He was also chairman of the Junior Prom and in the cast of the Senior Play (3). A real jitterbug and full of fun, Ray lists as his hobbies dancing, swimming, and of course—girls!

RICHARD ORR

Big, blond, and brawny, Dick uses his physique to the best advantage. In his senior year, he was outstanding as a tackle on the football team. It has been said that Dick majors in loafing, but we doubt this, since he spends his out-of-school time working in a butcher shop.

WAYNE PEOPLES

Wayne, our class president and our last year's vice-president, wants to go to Alaska after college. His hobby is collecting—stamps, coins, and girls. Activities at Conrad have included: Science Club (3,4); Basketball (3,4); Biology Club (2); Senior Reception (4); and Student Council (4).

PHILIP PIERSON

To become a progressive farmer and own a '46 Mercury are Phil's top ambitions. A vocational student and an active F. F. A. member, he was president of that organization in his senior year. Phil's outstanding 4-H Club work won him a trip to Chicago and a $200 scholarship.

IRENE PORTER

Playing guard in basketball is Irene's or "Red's" chief delight; she also enjoys bowling and dancing. Her main dislikes are people who "crack" gum, rainy weather, and her nightly chore of washing dishes. Irene hopes to become an efficient telephone operator.

CATHERINE POTTER

"Kay," who tells us that her greatest ambition is to graduate, is a student of the general course. Her interests seem to incline toward music, since she sang with the Freshman Chorus, was a member of the music committee for the Prom, and served as one of the student directors of the musical "Redskin Rambles."

CARL QUINN

With his mind on aviation "Jerry" finds it hard to concentrate on dull books when planes are zooming over. He hopes to pilot for a civilian airline. Bowling is a favorite pastime, but he enjoys dancing too. Carl played football (3), and was also on the Student Council (4).

CHARLES L. REED

Fun-loving "Charlie" likes to dance, skate, and swim. After graduation, he hopes to return to the Diamond State Telephone Company, where he works during the summer. Charlie was a very active member of the Decoration Committee for the Junior Prom. His main dislike is detention hall.

FRANK RENO

Air-minded "Penguin" wants to be an airline pilot and promises us cut-rate fares on his plane. Among his activities at Conrad are: Student Council (2), Senior Play (3), Senior Reception (4), and Sound Crew (2-4). Frank goes in for swimming, diving, basketball, photography, and—week-end dates.

GERTRUDE RHIND

Good-natured "Gertie" always has a smile for everyone and is never too busy to help. She has been vice-president of the Oreads (4), class secretary (3,4), a member of the hockey squad, and the business manager of the Conradian (4). Gertrude is enthusiastic about school, but dislikes homework. A commercial student, her ambition is to be a private secretary.

BILLIE ANN RHINEHART

"Bill" came to us from Dormant Hill, Pennsylvania, where she was a member of the Student Council and Science Club. An active member of the Girl Reserves at Conrad, she is pursuing the general course. "Bill" likes sports, dancing, and writing letters to a certain Seabee.

DOLORES RITCHIE

Ambitious to become a teacher of art, "Dorrie" has been an enthusiastic student in this field. She also enjoys dancing, having fun, and masculine companionship. "Dorrie" will receive a diploma in the general course.

JOE ROBINSON

"Smiley Joe" is one of Conrad's outstanding athletes, having been a three-letter man in his junior and senior year. His activities include football (2-4), baseball (3,4), basketball (2-4), and sleeping in and out of class. Good-natured Joe wants to join the Navy and succeed in life. Best of luck, Acy!

JEAN ANN ROGERS

Jean Ann, a student of the academic course, played basketball (2,4) and baseball (3) at Conrad. She also has been a member of the Conradian Business Staff (3,4), Oreads, Spanish Club, Girl Reserves, and the Freshman Chorus. Her ambition is to go to college, but her chief hobby is writing letters to a certain red-headed sailor.

KATHLEEN RUTH

You've all seen dark-haired, spirited "Kanny" out in front of the crowds doing her part as captain of the cheerleaders. Additional activities include baseball (3,4); basketball (2,3,4); Student Council (4); and "Redskin Rambles." Listing a certain marine as her chief interest, Kanny's odd moments are filled by the theater and dancing.

KENNETH SCHNECKENBURGER

Kenny, one of the most well-known members of our club, lists his hobbies and favorite sports as skating, riding, and football. His chief outside interest is in the Marshallton Boys' Club, of which he is treasurer. His dreams of the future are centered around chemistry.

JEANNINE SCOTT

One of the quietest and best-read scholars in our class, "Scotty" has been an outstanding academic student. Until a recent illness, she had an illimitable supply of energy as was attested by her membership in the Oreads, French Club, and—earlier in her school career—her participation in the Freshman Chorus, hockey, and the Biology Club.

DONALD SHANNON

Here is an ambitious fellow! He wants height, girl friends, and a college education. Seriously though, Don wants to be a mechanical engineer. For two years he has employed some of his abundant "pep" in helping to lead cheers (3,4). He was also in the Spanish Club (4), and the Science Club (3,4), the "Redskin Rambles," and the Senior Reception.

FRED SHEWBROOKS

With the ambition to become a contractor, "Reds" has pursued the general course during his high school career. He heartily enjoys eating and thoroughly dislikes homework. "Reds" has been active in intramural baseball; he also participated in the "Redskin Rambles."

PATSY SIMPERS

A keen enjoyment for sports has made "Patsy" outstanding in hockey, basketball, and baseball. She is also treasurer of the Senior Class, president of the Oreads, president of the French Club, Alumni editor of "Conradian" and a member of the Glee Club (2-4). After receiving her academic diploma, she hopes to attend the University of Delaware.

ELIZABETH SINGLES

"Betty," a commercial student, is well known in Conrad by her pleasant smile. She likes bowling and dancing; and her motto is to "Get that piece of paper in my hands." We're all sure she'll be successful in her efforts.

HENRY SMITH

Henry is a commercial student with lots of ambition. He plans to own a chicken farm some day. Henry enjoys swimming, fishing, hillbilly dances, and dating the girls.

ELIZABETH SPEAKMAN

"Bette," our quiet brunette with the nice voice, plans a singing career. She hopes to major in music at the University of California at Los Angeles. Her activities about school have run toward the musical side: Freshman Chorus and Glee Club (2-4). She likes the navy "but definitely."

BAYARD STEELE

Bayard, one of our quiet, good-natured vocational students, hopes to become a successful farmer after graduation. He has been an active member of the F. F. A., serving as secretary in his senior year. Bayard enjoys good movies and collects books of matches in his spare time.

WILLIAM STEELE

Bill, an ambitious and a determined student of the general course hopes to become a poultry raiser after graduation. While at Delaware City, where he attended until his sophomore year, Bill was a catcher on the school's baseball team. His hobbies include fishing, baseball, and poultry raising.

CATHERINE STEVENS

"Kitty" enjoys nothing more than a good game, whether it be football, basketball or baseball; and as a member of the Twirling Corps (1,3) she has had the opportunity of seeing many. Her hobbies are collecting recordings and writing letters, and her ambition is to become "somebody's secretary."

JANET STRADLEY

Tall and attractive, Janet is pursuing the academic course. Besides being an ardent sports lover, this amiable senior is a member of the Oreads (3,4), and of the Spanish Club (4). Janet's main dislike is riding on the school bus; however, she does enjoy horseback riding, ice skating, and dancing. Her ambition is to attend college.

ELAINE TAYLOR

Green-eyed, attractive Elaine, better known as "Sherry," is studying the commercial course. Her ambition is to see a Notre Dame football game and to meet its players. Favorite pastimes consist of dancing, horseback riding, and watching football games. Collecting pitchers is her hobby.

BARBARA THOMPSON

If "The way to a man's heart is through his stomach," our academic student, "Barb" Thompson, prominent in 4-H work, is bound to get a man, for she is well-known for her talent in cooking. During her four years at Conrad, she has been a member of the Oreads (3,4), Conradian Press Club (4), and the Spanish Club (4).

JAMES THOMPSON

"Bud," who hopes to graduate with an academic diploma, plans to study medicine. His favorite pastimes are painting, fishing, hunting, and trapping. "Bud" played with the "Stardusters" (1-4), and with the band (1-3). He also took part in the Senior Reception program.

JOHN THOMPSON, JR.

Sports-loving Jack is an academic student who plans to study medicine. He played football (3,4) and basketball (4). Among his other activities were: Student Council (4), Spanish Club (4), the Senior Play (3), "Redskin Rambles," and the Senior Reception. Jack's favorite pastime is dancing.

CATHERINE TOMPKINS

Small, cheery "Sugar" is a student of the academic course. As a junior she worked on the Conradian "News Letter" and is now a member of the Spanish Club. Her recreations include ice skating, swimming, and dancing. She particularly likes loud neckties (on whom, we wonder?)

LILLIAN TOWNSEND

Academically-inclined "Lill" has participated in hockey (3,4), basketball (3), Glee Club (2-4), Oreads (3), and Spanish Club (4). She is gifted with a clear soprano voice and a talent for playing the piano. Her ambition is to become a social worker, and with her friendly ways she surely will succeed.

EDNA TREFNEY

"Eddie," who came to us from Delaware City, is a student of the commercial course. A possessor of a pleasing personality, Eddie's hobbies are collecting movie magazines, attending movies, and listening to good music. Her ambition is to graduate and become a successful secretary.

BETTY TWILLEY

This amiable senior is an employee with Bell Telephone outside of school hours, and she hopes to make switchboard operating her future work. Betty, at present, is very fond of a certain merchant marine. She loves all kinds of sports, and her chief hobby is saving foreign money.

ESTHER VIGNEULLE

Happy and jovial, "Es" is a member of Spanish Club (4), Latin Club (4), and Oreads (3,4). Esther enjoys singing and playing the piano, but greatly dislikes reading books. In addition to becoming a secretary, she is also desirous of being, in the future, a charming farmerette.

RAY WASKI

Ray might well be known as an amateur spaghetti artist, and playing the part of a chef is his hobby. He is very much interested in science and plans to study chemistry. Ray was a member of the Bi-Si Club (2), and of the Science Club (3,4).

JANE WHISTLER

"Janie" is our class "wit," with a clever remark for every occasion. An academic student, she has been active in the Science Club (3,4), Oreads (3), Conradian Press Club (4), French Club (4), Biology Club (2), and the Senior Executive Committee. As far as we're concerned, her ambition—"to win friends and influence people"—has already been achieved.

ALICE WILSON

Alice, a commercial student, has a pleasing personality and is well liked by everybody. Her favorite pastimes are attending the movies, listening to the radio, eating, and dancing. Alice's ambition is to go to Kentucky to see "a certain soldier."

JEAN WILSON

A student of the general course, "Toots" is always ready for a good time. Although an artist at heart, she plans to become a secretary after attending Beacom's. She is fond of all sports and enjoys collecting stamps as a hobby.

ROBERT WIMMER

Bob came to us from Oxford, Pennsylvania. A jolly fellow and a good friend, his ambition is to become a professional marine. He likes cars and pretends to dislike girls. His chief hobby is hunting.

ROBERT WITHERS

"Ish" is really at home at the keyboard, whether he is beating out boogie or composing. He played with the "Stardusters," with the School Band (1-4), and he wrote much of the music for the "Redskin Rambles." "Ish" was also in the Senior Play (3) and the Senior Reception. His ambition is to become a recognized composer.

KENNETH WOOD

"Woodie," a star athlete and a three-letter man in football (2-4), baseball (3,4), and basketball (1-4), captained both the football and basketball teams in his senior year. He hopes to make a career in athletics. Class president in his junior year and now a member of the Senior Executive Committee, he also belongs to the Spanish Club.

ROBERT WORTH, JR.

"Worthy," one of our season's outstanding varsity basketballers, who spent some time at Wildwood last summer. Need we say more? Bob's activities at Conrad include football (3,4), basketball (2-4), and baseball (3,4). In his sophomore year he was treasurer of the Student Council and a member of the Biology Club.

JENNIE ZYCZYNSKI

Small, pleasant "Jen" is a student of the general course. Her hobbies include dancing, hiking, and housework. In the ninth grade she was a member of the Freshman chorus. After graduation, "Jen" plans to attend Beacom College.

Former Members of the Class of '46

S2/C WILLIAM KLAIR
U.S.N.

ROBERT TAYLOR
Stricken with Infantile Paralysis in the fall of 1943

S2/C RICHARD ELWOOD
U.S.N.

S1/C RALPH STRADLEY
U.S.N.

PVT. GEORGE PYLE
U.S.A.A.F.

S2/C FRED LOCKWOOD
U.S.N.

PFC. ROY TAYLOR
U.S.M.C.

CPL. JOHN WITKOWSKI
U.S.A.

PFC. FRANCIS WITKOWSKI
U.S.A.

PFC. EARL BROWN
U.S.M.C.

PFC. HENRY ROSER
U.S.M.C.

