

CONRADIAN

1963

THE CONRADIAN

Published by the Journalism Workshop

H. C. CONRAD HIGH SCHOOL

Woodcrest, Wilmington 4, Delaware

Volume 27

1963

elect officers

James Alexander
Carol Anderson
John Bachmeyer

Senior class officers — Cookie Roberts, secretary; Kathy Dashiell, treasurer; Roger Suro, vice-president; Joe Cociolone, president — plan active year for their class.

FROM THE acceptance of the responsibilities by the elected officers to the duties of committee memberships, and from the direction of student council to participation in musical and dramatic events, it has always been a matter of seniors pride to review and authenticate their three-year records. As part of their recommendations to young adulthood, the portraits and activities of the Class of 1963 are a reminder of their Life at Conrad High School.

Julane Baker
William Barber
Laura Barfo
Ingrid Bergstrom

Johanna Bevans
Ralph Biddle
Donald Bishop
Elizabeth Blake

gab away their

"Yes, Love, but I can't talk any longer now. Bob Vinyard is quite impatient to make his call," laughs Viola DiNorscia.

idle time . . .

Patricia Blondell
Barry Boulden
Nancy Boyce
Jane Brandenberger

Marcia Braxton
Jerome Brezenski
James Browning
Linda Bruce

John Burgess
Oliver Cahoon
Carolyn Campbell
James Campanelli

Richard Camperson
Patricia Cartwright
James Casula
Douglas Caudill

Donna Chalmers
Donna Chance
Gary Chanko
John Chlebowski

Rodney Chronister
Joanne Cichocki
Nahit Cinar
John Cituk

work and play as good "Conradians"...

Mary Lynn Clark
Margaret Cloud
Phyllis Clugston
Joseph Cocciolone

Wayne Comegys
Pamela Corbett
Joseph Corsello
Jeffrey Crist

Always cheerful, Al Sanchen puts an idle broom to good use, while Julie "The Wit" Guida quips, "Really, Darling, would someone please call me a cab to band camp."

Camera shy, but handsome, Bill Taylor (top) and photogenic Judi Kennedy pose for the role of "best-looking."

Ann Di Michele
Viola Di Norscia
Mary Eastburn
Christina Edler

Janet Ewing
John Fernandez
Helen Flowers
George Fuller

Kathleen Dashiell
Cheryl Davenport
Carl Davis
Claude Davis

Richard Davis
Garrett Dawson
Lois Devenney
Bonnie Dill

come and go through rain or snow . . .

"Ugh! I'll be soaked before I get home," wails Elaine Hughes.

Anne Gognon
Harriet Garver
Frederick George
James Gilmour

Harilda Green
Patricia Green
Harry Griesbach
Nancy Grinsell

discover new

"Are you sure this is the way you catch a frog?"
inquires Ann Hafslund. "Of course," answers

Julia Guida
Ann Hafslund
John Hartnett
Charles Hayes

Wayne Head
Cindy Heath
Jean Henretty
Lawrence Hildreth

"I wonder if Lee will be invited to play at the White House soon?"

science labs . . .

Rod Chronister, "How do you think you catch a frog, with a net?" "You're such a brain, Rod!"

muses Mary Jane Simmons as Lee Mitchell tickles the keys.

Richard Hoogland
Robert Hogan
Barbara Hainowski
Judith Hudon

Margaret Hughes
Francis Huhn
Ruth Ann Irwin
Ann Jamison

try for high scores on

Irene Kaufman
Mary Kelleher
Robert Kempksi
Judith Kennedy

Judith Kershaw
Carol Kilaski
Peter Kit
Catherine Knowles

Linda Jantz
Carol Jester
John Joannides
Nancy Johnson

Mary Jones
Warren Jones
Thomas Kane
Joann Kania

college boards . . .

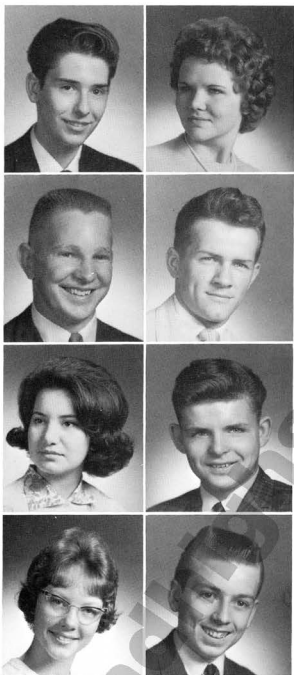

Arlene Kreer
Sherrie Kreer
Patricia Kuhar
Arlene Lance

Patricia Langshaw
Alice Larson
Thomas Lee
David Lemmon

Gary Lind
Paul Liss
Donald Lowden
Ruth Lutz

John Mahoney
John Maloney
Barbara Marchant
Carol Marks

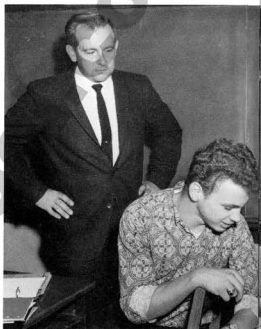

Amos Marsh
John Martin
Paulina Martinez
Barbara Marvel

Alexandra Maxwell
Barry Mays
Michael McCloskey
Thomas McElhone

"All right?" . . . "It's all right," chides in Joe Cocciolone to Kathy Dashiell as they ponder over the ideas of what to be on Halloween. Joe is planning to dress up as a farmer and Kathy is going to be a ram.

put a little fun

Unaware of Mr. Work's disapproving glare, John Bachmeyer and in their lives . . .

Jackie Thorpe concentrate on their "tick-tack-toe" game.

Barbara McElroy
Judith McHugh
John McMinn
Peter Mears

Rebecca Merrill
Elaine Mical
John Migliore
Antoinette Milcho

Pearl Miles
Joseph Miller
Harvey L. Mitchell
Joseph Mooney

Margaret Moorhead
Doris Morris
Dorothy Morris
Mary Ann Morris

Carole Murphy
Maureen Murphy
Phyllis Murray
Martha Neave

Willard Neiger
Ronnie Nichols
Susan Nichols
Sharon Osmond

vie for scholarship awards . . .

Patricia Price
Lois Priebe
Edward Ranck
Jane Rawlins

Emory Reader
Kenneth Rhoads
Norman Riddell
Charlotte Roberts

Anne Paoli
Mary Ann Paoli
Rose Mary Paoli
Natalie Patton

Mary Jane Peet
Barbara Pierce
Elizabeth Pierce
Leon Price

Dramatic to the end, Barbara Wilson pleads, "Strike if you must this poor girl's head, but spare your country's flag!" as John Wilson unmercifully wields his sword.

"What are you waiting for Jack? Put it on," kids Lucy Cloud as she hands him a hockey stick.

Nancy Russell
Judy Ryan
Frances Sapp
Ann Schell

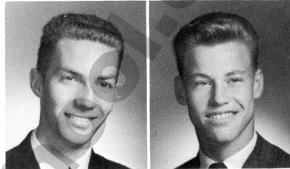

Jeanne Schmidt
Walter Szubelek
Antonio Sembianti
Melvin Shepherd

exhibit leadership in school activities . . .

Sandra Sianni
Mary Jane Simmons
John Smogala
Alfred Sonchen

Barbara Steele
Robert Steinbach
Joseph Stetina
Raqr Suro

Robert Sutton
Robert Tanner
Carol Taylor
Peggy Taylor

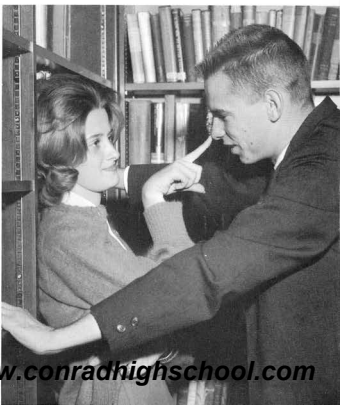

William F. Taylor
William H. Taylor
Jacqueline Thorp
Josephine Thomas

Mary Lee Thomas
 Agnes Thompson
 Mary Jane Thompson
 Barbara Trapnell

Edward Tremi
 Louise Truitt
 Richard Turtoro
 Barbara Ubil

The best dressed seniors, Nancy Grinsell and Paul White, looking well-groomed as usual, arrive for another day at Conrad.

"Now I've got you," jokes Tom Hartnett as he corners Judi Hudon, "the class flirt," who looks as though she really doesn't mind.

enjoy each other's companionship . . .

Richard Updyke
Nancy Valentine
Janet Venuti
Robert Vinyard

Paul Warner
Clare Weeks
Andrea White
Paul White

Carl Wilhelm
Lavina Williams
Marcia Williams
Barbara Wilson

John Wilson
Margaret Worth
Sharon Zill
Pamela Zingale

www.conradhighschool.com